

ABOVE: Volunteers from Foodbank, family, neighbors in this community, and a group of children from the Foodbank's program, are helping to move the Christmas spirit to the children of the community.

...the children of the community. The Foodbank's program is a volunteer-based organization that provides food and clothing to the children of the community. The program is open to all children, regardless of their background or financial situation. The program is a great way for children to learn about the importance of giving and helping others. The program is also a great way for children to have fun and make new friends. The program is a great way for children to learn about the importance of giving and helping others. The program is also a great way for children to have fun and make new friends.

